

The BK Collection

Ladybugs lay their eggs in clusters or rows on the underside of leaves. This protects their eggs from predators and bad weather. Count the number of eggs a ladybug has laid on each leaf and put that number on the line next to the leaf. Then, color the ladybug and eggs on the bottom of the page.

