

After viewing the video created by Mahkia Green and researching other protests/protesters, use the Venn Diagram to show similarities and differences between the protesters of the past, with those fighting for social justice today.

How have those fighting for social justice remained the same?
