

WHAT'S WILD

DOLPHINS QUIZ

The What's Wild episode on dolphins traveled to the coastal region of South Carolina that this fauna calls home. If you caught this episode dolphinitely check out this trivia quiz.

Test your knowledge!

Ready?

Here We Go!

Question 1. How many barrier islands call South Carolina's coastal region home?

A. 10

B. 35

C. 19

D. 27

The correct answer is...

B. 35

Question 2. _____ a process that moves soil, rock, or dissolved material from one area to another.

- A. Abrasion
- B. Erosion
- C. Weathering
- D. Corrosion

The correct answer is...

B. Erosion

Question 3. In some areas, up to five feet of shoreline is washed away every year. This erosion can eventually cause the ocean to cut into the maritime forests, leaving behind a graveyard of _____.

A. Sand

B. Trees

C. Seashells

D. Jellyfish

The correct answer is...

B. Trees

Question 4. True/False: Bottlenose dolphins typically work alone when hunting and feeding.

True

False

The correct answer is...

False

Question 5. _____ is the location of objects by reflected sound.

- A. Localisation
- B. Reverb
- C. Echolocation
- D. Sonar

The correct answer is...

C. Echolocation

Question 6. What behavior do dolphins utilize to ensure that fish don't slip back into the water when finding prey?

- A. Fluid Feeding
- B. Team Crawling
- C. Huddling
- D. Strand Feeding

The correct answer is...

D. Strand Feeding

Question 7. True/False: Dolphins are among the smartest creatures on the planet.

True

False

The correct answer is...

True

Question 8. Dolphins brain-to-body ratio is second only to what species?

- A. Raccoons
- B. Dogs
- C. Humans
- D. Octopi

The correct answer is...

C. Humans

Question 9. Though bottlenose dolphins are not endangered, they are a federally protected species under the _____ Act.

- A. Marine Mammal Protection
- B. Dolphin Safety
- C. Water Protection
- D. Bottlenose Buds

The correct answer is...

A. Marine Mammal Protection

Question 10. True/False: Charleston's Lowcountry Marine Mammal Network helps gather data on dolphin populations via "citizen science" where the public can use a smartphone app to log dolphin sightings into a database.

True

False

The correct answer is...

True

How well
did you do?