Steven Gross - Ready to Open

Gross: There, there's so much work to be done in the theater. There's so much more than just acting and there, there's, there's so much acting to be done. Um, it's just...it's an incredible industry that encompasses so many fields and so many craftsmen and so many artists, and it's just a wonderful collaborative effort.

And that's the really great thing about theater...is that maybe it's the same job but it's being done in a different way every day. It's a new challenge every day. It's, it's always a project you've never worked on before, and so it's, it's always the unknown. And that's the excitement and the, the passion that I find for what I do...is finding the new way to do something that's never been done before.
