

Charles Crewell

Interviewed by Anne Kimzey

1. Discussing Huguenot ancestors (00:43)

Creswell: Yes, uh, my forefather's are French on one side, from French Huguenots, yeah.

Other voice: Yeah, uh-huh.

Creswell: That old- the old man Andrew, that boy wanted to move the house, down to the Huguenot where my great-great-great-great-grandfather got [?] for about a year. I got a family tree from him down to about the present time.

Other voice: Uh-huh.

Creswell: And uh, we used to go over there- in Bardo- have you been to Bardo too?

Other voices: <mumbles>

Creswell: Bardo- it's across from the other side of- of Delaham, across the little river from Delaham.

Other voice: <mumbles>

Creswell: The first church used to be right there- the Huguenot church- they got a cross there now, but that was the first church in this part of the country, Huguenot church.
