Minister Harrison Goodwin: I started school at Aiken grade school which was a Rosenwald school there first grade through the sixth. I graduated from sixth grade and went to school at Schofield, I graduate 1954 there.

Valinda Littlefield, Interviewer: So were you active in the civil rights movement?

Goodwin: The civil rights movement had helped us a lot you know with Martin Luther King and all of the rest of the men and women that were jailed and beaten got us where we are today. It's good that that happen, if we are going to accomplish something in that time, that's what it take they thought that's what it would take it was not necessary to do those things if the person or people were Christian they wouldn't do that. We struggled but we're here. We still have a struggle ahead of us also as of now this day, but we will accomplish something before the end of time.
