

Nothing to Prove

1. Blues For You (00:45)

M. Arnold: ...we're going to do.

Just enjoy yourself while we play the blues.

M. Arnold and Backup Vocals: What we're going do,

Is play the blues for you.

What we're going to do,

Is play the blues for you.

And if you think it's right,

We're gonna play all night.

What we're going do,

Is play the blues for you.

What we're going to do,

Is play the blues for you.

2. Nothin' to Prove (00:33)

M. Arnold: Don't tell me about your troubles.

Ain't nothin' I hadn't already been through.

No matter what I say,

You're gonna do what you're gonna do.

'Cause I'm here to tell you,

Yeah...<Audio ends>

3. Call Mac Arnold (00:26)

M. Arnold: You say you have a rocky relationship,

And your man won't do right.

Don't put up with the trash he talk,

Just cut your [friends] and walk.
And call Mac Arnold,
If you want to have some fun.
[????] hotta'
When you man is on the run.

4. I Don't Know (00:30)

M. Arnold: I don't know why,
You're always lying.
I don't know why,
You're shucking and jiving.
I don't know why,
You're so conniving.
I don't know...<Audio ends>

5. (Get On) Back to the Country (00:32)

M. Arnold: I woke up early this morning,
Decided I better check myself.
I woke up early this morning,
Figured I better check myself.

6. Ghetto Blue (00:30)

M. Arnold: I used to live in Chicago,
A long years ago.
I can't forget all the hard times,
Livin' in the wind and snow.
Oh, I never will forget,
Livin' in the ghetto.
I learned how to sing the blues,

7. Going Back Home (00:30)

M. Arnold: Everyday I wake up,

It's the same ole' thing.

Traffic, cars, and people,

And subway trains.

I want to go back,

To where the birds sang.

Back to the country,

[Never hear a different name].

Well I believe in here,

People that's no lie.

<Audio fades out>

8. The Truth (00:29)

M. Arnold: Listen up now baby,

Have you heard the news?

Thangs ain't what they used to be,

Between me and you.

Some people never tell a lie,

Because they think the truth is not good enough.

Somebody's telling lies...<Audio fades out>

9. She's So Mean to Me (00:20)

M. Arnold: When we first got together baby,

Ev...<Audio fades out>
