

Transcript for Why Penn Center?:

Voice of Interviewer:

Now why did he feel that it was important to come down to the Penn Center in this area?

Voice of Voice of Joseph McDomick, Jr, Civil Rights Movement Activist:

Penn was, number one, it was isolated. If you came out to Penn, you either had to be coming out for a conference or you were just coming to get away from everything—the hustle and bustle (laughing).

He also came here because his staff was integrated. There was not many places in this country where you could take an integrated staff to stay and work. So he came to Penn because there wasn't any problem with bringing his staff to Penn Center.
