

Gene Wyatt

1. Colonel's Jazz Blues (01:44)

This song is solely instrumental. Gene Wyatt on guitar, Wes Wyatt on guitar, and Carroll Foster on electric bass play a fast paced tune.

2. Little Things (02:12)

W. Wyatt: Well I wont forget my hat,
If you lay out my coat.
In the pocket is a lighter,
And the money for the smokes.
I'm bad to forget,
Little things I need.
Like razors, rolling papers,
Can you think of anything?
Little things that you know how to do.

I've got change for coffee,
These pockets you've sown too.
And little things, big since I met you.
Well turn the light off baby,
Switch I know ain't moved.

Well almost to the door,
I received a sign.
There's something I'm forgettin',
But I just don't have the time.

Lookin' all the places,
For somethin' I wont need.
Instead I look in your eyes,
And remember everything.
Well little things that you know how to do.

I've got change for coffee,
These pockets you've sown too.
And little things, big since I met you.
Well turn the light off baby,
Switch I know ain't moved.

3. Coffee (01:24)
